

Alex Stephen

Director of Finance

Alex's career started in local government in 1996. In 1999 Alex qualified as a professional accountant and went on to hold a number of positions in Aberdeenshire Council's Finance Department. In 2016 Alex became the Chief Finance Officer for Aberdeen City Integration Joint Board and Aberdeen City Health and Social Care Partnership. During this time Alex also undertook the role of Depute Chief Officer for both these bodies.

As the Director of Finance Alex is interested in all aspects of finance, however, has a particular interest in financial governance and systems.
