

Daily Brief...

Friday 6 June 2025

TrakCare server maintenance – today Essential maintenance is required on the TrakCare server. This will take place today between 12-12.15pm. All active users will be logged out of the system at 12pm. Users will be able to log back in immediately; please ensure any clinical or patient data you are entering is saved before 12pm. If unsaved data is lost, it must be re-entered manually.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Putting People First – upcoming events Torry Health Matters is partnering with our Putting People First initiative to test a Community Appointment Day (CAD) approach on Thursday 12 June. The event will be focusing on Torry Men's Health, offering Life MOT sessions, and will take place in the Greyhope Community Hub on Tullos Circle. The afternoon session will run 2-5pm, with food available between 5-6pm, and then an evening session until 7.30pm. Other events in the planning includes a focus on supporting families with pre-school and primary school age children, offering a wide range of health and wider support all in one place.

Also on Thursday 12 June, free health MOTs will be on offer to those in minority ethnic communities at Aberdeen Arts Centre between 11am and 3pm. Blood pressure checks, support with oral health, and practical advice on finances, immigration, and housing will be on offer. Both these events are drop-in, with no booking required. Please share the dates and times with patients/clients, colleagues, and friends.

Innovate Medtech North event Staff interested in health innovations are invited to take part in a free event at ONE BioHub (on the Foresterhill Campus) on Thursday 3 July from 9.30am to 3.30pm. The event will feature our NHS Innovation Hub colleagues and will provide a chance for you to get information on how to navigate med tech, hear from successful companies and gain advice on funding.

Grampian Hospitals Art Trust Hello from the Art Collection Team at Grampian Hospitals Art Trust (GHAT)! Did you know we own, manage and display over 4,000 artworks across dozens of NHS Grampian sites? If you would like an artwork installed, changed, removed, or collected from your venue, please get in touch, we may be able to help. Our works are clearly labelled, so if you find artwork in storage that belongs to GHAT, please get in touch. Drop us a line at gram.hospitalsarttrust@nhs.scot or call ext.52429 - see link to leaflet for more details: Contact the Collections Team | Grampian Hospitals Art Trust

That was the week that was

Monday 2 – fire safety training reminder, return of the REACH award

Tuesday 3 – Loop rollout/EOL closure, adult support & protection training, 2025 manual handling event

Wednesday 4 – update on Stage 4 escalation, Values Based Reflective Practice opportunities

Thursday 5 – Scottish Government update on Supreme Court ruling, iMatter 2025 – deadline looming

All briefs are stored online, just click this link or visit Working with Us>HR Portal>NHSG Staff Daily Briefs on the NHS Grampian website.

STAR Award We say congratulations to Rory McCulloch, a staff nurse at RACH, following presentation of a STAR Award. He was nominated in recognition to his contribution to his team and their patients during a period of staffing issues and considerable workload. If you want to nominate a colleague or team for a STAR Award, please use this form: STAR Award nomination form

Tune of the day It's Eid ul Adha! Research nurse Azeezat Ogunbadejo requests Eidun Saeed by Mesut Kurtis and Maher Zain, to wish all the very best to Muslim colleagues working across health & social care.

Lisa Runcie has been in touch; it's her last day with the manual handling team before she heads off on maternity leave. By way of thanks to her lovely colleagues, she's asked for The Beatles and With A Little Help From My Friends. Also saying farewell is Hannah Wilson, who has her final day with the orthotics team at Woodend today. Yvonne and the team say she will be much missed. As Hannah is a big fan of trad music, here's some Skerryvore and Happy To Be Home to send Hannah on her way.

And suddenly, it is Friday again. Thank you for everything, you've done more than you know. Whatever your plans for the weekend, I wish you a good one (EP)

If you want to request a tune, follow up on items included in this brief, or suggest an item for sharing, drop us an email via gram.communications@nhs.scot