

Gail Woodcock Director of Strategy, Transformation and Performance

Gail Woodcock is Director of Strategy, Transformation and Performance at NHS Grampian. She brings more than 30 years' experience across health and social care, as well as culture, sport and community services.

Prior to joining NHS Grampian, Gail was Chief Officer for Falkirk Integration Joint Board and Director of Health and Social Care for NHS Forth Valley and Falkirk Council. In these roles, she was responsible for leading collaboration between health and local authority partners to improve outcomes for local communities.

Gail has held a number of senior leadership positions throughout her career, including Managing Director for Bon Accord Care, Transformation Lead for Aberdeen Health and Social Care Partnership, and Head of Integration in Falkirk.

With a strong track record in partnership working and system-wide transformation, Gail is committed to delivering sustainable improvements that enhance care, performance and outcomes for the people of Grampian.