

Paul Bachoo,
Medical Director (Acute)

Paul Bachoo is the Medical Director for Acute Services at NHS Grampian, a role he has held since 2019. With over 20 years of experience as a vascular consultant, Paul brings deep clinical expertise and strategic leadership to the region's acute care services.

He qualified from the Royal College of Surgeons in 1993 and completed his specialist training in Vascular Surgery in Aberdeen. Prior to his consultant appointment in 2000, Paul enhanced his clinical practice through placements at leading Endovascular Centres across Europe.

Throughout his career, Paul has held several key leadership positions, including:

- Clinical Lead for Vascular Surgery
- Divisional Clinical Director for the Division of Surgery
- Clinical Lead for Aberdeen's designation as a Major Trauma Centre
- Deputy Associate Medical Director

In 2021, Paul was appointed NHSG Executive Lead for Planned Care & Cancer Services along with his NHSG Lead Realistic Medicine role which he continues alongside his responsibilities as Medical Director.

His professional interests include Vascular and Robotic Surgery, as well as championing Realistic Medicine - ensuring care is tailored to individual needs and values.
